TOPIC -----

Can I test non-Apple video cards with the Apple TechStep video card test?

DISCUSSION -----

No. Non-Apple video cards are not supported by the Apple TechStep video card test.

Note

----

Some non-Apple video cards may cause Test Manager entry problems. If a non-Apple card is installed in the Macintosh you are testing, and you experience Test Manager entry problems, power off the system and either disconnect the monitor cable from the card or remove the card.
